

THEATRE VISIT TO THE RSC STRATFORD TO SEE
"A CHRISTMAS CAROL"
Thursday 10 January 2019
Matinee performance – 1:15am

A brand new adaptation of the Charles Dickens classic – one of the most loved short stories ever written. In one ghostly Christmas night, cold-hearted businessman Ebenezer Scrooge learns to pity himself and to love his neighbour – but is that enough?

It is a festive tale of redemption and compassion.

David Edgar is one of our greatest living writers. His rich history with the RSC stretches from Destiny in 1976 through the multi-award-winning adaptation of Dickens' Nicholas Nickleby, to Written on the Heart (2011). Now he returns to Dickens to rediscover the social conscience of this timeless tale.

This production was an enormous success in 2017-18 getting 4* reviews from The Telegraph, Daily Mail, Financial Times, Evening Standard, The Stage, and What's on Stage. We have secured excellent seats in the stalls.
