Evening performance
Wednesday 27th June 2018
“Romeo and Juliet”

'My only love sprung from my only hate.' Prokofiev's glorious score sets hearts alight in Kenneth MacMillan's enduringly popular Romeo and Juliet.

Love at first dance, forbidden passions, dangerous secrets and star-crossed fate combine in this exhilarating classic ballet. In the most famous love story ever told, a dangerous cocktail of arrogant youth, simmering tension and deadly feuds erupts, leaving two young lovers at the mercy of powerful families and their own hearts. From the balcony scene's ecstatic pas de deux, exploring love in all its soaring wonder, to the lovers' heart-breaking ends, Romeo and Juliet is dance at its most poignant and beautiful.
